Place for your good thoughts

The image shows a screenshot of the EcoBalt 2016 website and a Google Docs document. The website header includes logos for ECAC (Estonian Center of Analytical Chemistry), the University of Tartu (1862), Tallinn University of Technology (TTÜ 1918), and Kesklabor. The main content area features the EcoBalt 2016 logo and a description of the conference: "EcoBalt 2016 is an international research conference that will be held on 9.-12. October 2016 in Tartu, Estonia (in Dorpat conference centre). The conference will focus on the most recent scientific and technological developments in the field of environmental analysis, environment and its protection. With the support by the EcoBalt conference series, EcoBalt 2016 is organized by the University of Tartu with Tallinn University of Technology and Estonian Environmental Research Centre." A sidebar on the right lists navigation options: About, EcoBalt 2016, Core facilities, Partners, Services, Mission, and Funding. Below the website is a Google Docs document titled "Thoughts on EcoBalt2016" with a toolbar and a text area containing the placeholder text: "Here you can leave your thoughts or ideas related to the conference!".
